Programs

Regularly scheduled monthly programs and are presented on numerous topics related to Ancient Egypt by knowledgeable and enthusiastic ESS members as well as by nationally and internationally renowned Egyptologists and scholars. Adults and children with adults are welcome to attend.
The ESS is a cooperating organization affiliated with the Denver Museum of Nature and Science, which also sponsors lectures by visiting scholars and lecturers.

Meeting Information

Regular ESS meetings are held at 7:00 PM in Ricketson Auditorium of the Denver Museum of Nature and Science (DMNS) on the third Monday of the month. DMNS is located at 2001 Colorado Blvd., Denver, CO 80205.
Admission is free to members; a $2.00 donation is requested from nonmembers.

Meet & Greet

Visiting speakers are guests of honor at ESShosted receptions, where members are given the opportunity to meet and visit directly with them.

Publications

The Ostrakon is the official publication of the ESS. It contains articles by ESS members and professional Egyptologists documenting their research, special areas of interest, and personal experiences. Regular features also include reviews of lectures, books, and exhibits.

The Scribe's Palette is the ESS monthly newsletter. This informal publication updates members on ESS-related activities, current archaeological events, noteworthy exhibits, member news, and more.

Study Groups

Are you interested in specific aspects of Ancient Egypt? There are ESS study groups focusing on art, mummies, hieroglyphs, ancient records, and books! If your area of interest is not included, other members may be interested in joining you to form a new group.
